

History of South Dakota's Conservation Districts

(portions published 1969)

The 2012 document was prepared by Mayola Horst, Jackson County Conservation District; Patty Beck, Bennett County Conservation District; and SD Association of Conservation Districts executive director Angela Ehlers with the assistance of South Dakota's conservation district employees;
USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service public affairs staff;
SD Department of Agriculture-Division of Resource Conservation and Forestry staff; and many others with financial assistance of a Coordinated Natural Resources Conservation Grant awarded by the South Dakota Conservation Commission to Sanborn County Conservation District.

Thank you to all who contributed articles, photos and technical support!

The 1969 document was prepared by the History Committee of the South Dakota Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts;
Harry H. Martens, Wessington, S.D., Chairman; Ed Bailey, Lucas, S.D.; Roland Leonhardt, Oldham, S.D.
With the assistance of Gale Peppers, former Beadle County Extension Agent, deceased, and Leonard L. Ladd, former Extension Soil Conservationist
With the help of E. C. Bjorklund of the State Soil Conservation Service, District Supervisors, Work Unit Conservationists, County Extension Agents, and many others.
Most pictures used in this History were taken by the United States Soil Conservation Service.

An Acknowledgement

On behalf of the [1969] History Committee and myself, I want to extend our thanks to all of those people who have made this History possible by supplying the needed information. We want to thank the State Soil Conservation Committee, the State Soil Conservation Service Office, all of the District Supervisors, the Work Unit Conservationists, County Extension Agents, and the conservation farmers. And Mrs. Martens wants to thank the women who helped her with the Auxiliary History.

Again, we say thank you. – Leonard L. Ladd
